

Journeys: Three Quilters Gallery Talk & Reception

The National Quilt Museum will host a special gallery talk and reception featuring nationally recognized quilting teachers and historians Jerry Roy and Bettina Havig. The two, along with Chuck McManis, will be discussing the work of Doreen Speckmann, Diane Gaudynski, and Dorris McManis.

The Museum is currently exhibiting Quilt Journey: Three Quilters, which features the work of these three internationally recognized quilt artists.

The event is free with admission to the gallery. Friends of the Museum and Guild Guest Pass holders get into the gallery as part of their benefits.

Gerald Roy is an art teacher, painter, quilt maker, designer, antique dealer, quilt collector, historian and certified quilt appraiser. Bettina Havig is an author, quiltmaker, teacher, lecturer, judge, quilt historian, appraiser and consultant.

Friday, February 17th from 3 p.m. until 5 p.m.

No reservation needed

Light refreshments served

Bring your Friends card or Guild Guest Pass for free admission into Gallery

For more information, contact Judy Schwender 270-442-8856,
jschwender@quiltmuseum.org

The National Quilt Museum

215 Jefferson Street

Paducah, KY 42001

(270) 442-8856

QuiltMuseum.org

