New Quilts from an Old Favorite

2011 Orange Peel

Expanding the Vision, Advancing the Art

THEME

Quilters around the world are invited to enter outstanding quilts in the 18th Annual Competition coordinated by The National Quilt Museum of the United States. The 2011 competition is open to quilts that are innovative interpretations of the traditional Orange Peel pattern.

This competition gives quilters an excellent opportunity to share their work with people across the country. The quilts selected as finalists will receive awards and make up a traveling exhibition. A book on the exhibit will feature color photos of the quilts and the quiltmakers as well as the maker's patterns and/or tips. The exhibit will open at The National Quilt Museum and travel to other venues.

November 18, 2010 Finalists notified	December 16, 2010 Winners notified
	January 31, 2013 Quilts returned to quiltmakers

RULES

- Anyone can enter a cloth quilt by submitting digital images (one full view and one detail), a completed entry blank and an entry fee. These must arrive at the museum by November 1, 2010. CDs will not be returned.
- The entry fee for Friends of the Museum is $10. Others must enclose a $40 entry fee with their entry blank. A contestant can make a donation to become a Friend of the Museum when entering and enter for $10. Make all checks payable to the National Quilt Museum. The National Quilt Museum is a federal 501(c)3 non-profit organization.
- The quilt must be constructed and hand or machine quilted by the person(s) named on the entry blank. No kits, please.
- Limit: one entry per person or team.
- The quilt must have been finished after December 31, 2007, and be in excellent condition.
- The quilt must be an interpretation of the Orange Peel pattern and should be recognizable in some way as related to that pattern. All quilts must be original designs, no adaptations of copyrighted patterns.
- The quilt must be a minimum of 50in or 127cm in each dimension and not exceed 80in or 203.2cm in any one dimension. It must not be framed with wood, metal, etc.
- Quilts judged too fragile for the traveling exhibition, as well as incomplete, torn, or soiled quilts, will be rejected and returned to their maker/owner.
- Quilts accepted for the exhibition will be chosen by digital images; notification of the jurors' decision will be by mail or telephone. CDs will not be returned.
- Accepted quilts must be shipped to the museum to arrive by December 1, 2010. A 4in or 10.16cm sleeve must be firmly attached along the upper edge of the back; an identification label with the name of the quilt and maker must be sewn to the lower left corner of the back.
- Finalists' quilts and award-winning quilts must be available to travel on exhibition through December 31, 2012.
- The quilts will be treated with great care and will be insured up to a maximum of $5,000 against loss and theft. The traveling exhibition will include materials for correct handling, along with instructions, thus quiltmakers should be aware that some normal wear and tear and soiling may occur.
- Award winners will be chosen by a panel of judges by December 17, 2010.
- A photo of the maker(s), information about the quilt, and a pattern or technique for the quilt must be provided for the contest/exhibition publication. Quilts will be photographed for use in the publication and for publicity and education. The publication will be available for purchase at each travel venue.
